

1. The Fethiye Film Festival (FFF) Screening Selection has been announced. The Film Programme will be revealed on 25 November!!!

The Fethiye Film Festival (FFF), which includes documentaries, fiction, animation and experimental films in its Screening Selection, will take place between 7 and 10 December 2023.

All film screenings and conferences and discussions organised within the festival, which is brought to life by the Fethiye Photography and Cinema Arts Association (FEFSAD), will be free of charge.

The 1st Fethiye Film Festival Screening Selection was announced on 17 November 2023 via the festival's social media accounts. The Screening Selection includes 30 short films for cinema lovers, while the 'Special Screening' section features feature-length films that have made a name for themselves at festivals in Turkey and around the world and have won awards.

The festival, which aims to offer cinema lovers four sessions a day for four days, will announce its film programme on 25 November.

The FFF, which has received great interest and support from the cinema community, will also host conferences, presentations and discussions by distinguished academics, cinema veterans and directors, which will meet with cinema lovers at different venues throughout the festival.

The FFF aims to gain an international identity in 2024.

We look forward to welcoming you to the 1st Fethiye Film Festival and having your support with us.

Yours sincerely,
Canan TOR
FFF Festival President
